Dear Mr. Abrams:

I have just received this memorandum from Emilio F. Mignone in Argentina, and I hasten to direct it to your attention, in case you have not received it.

I hope you can instruct the American Embassy in Buenos Aires to make inquiries with the Argentine government regarding the whereabouts of Mr. Di Bernardo. I would greatly appreciate any information on new developments in this case.

I trust you have received my letter of last week and that we will be able to meet soon.

Thank-you very much for your attention and assistance.

Sincerely,

Juan E. Mendez
